

1. How long did the detection procedure last?

The detection procedure lasted 74.535188 seconds.

2. What protocols were observed and in which OSI layer are they classified?

Link Layer	Network Layer	Transportation Layer
ARP	IPv4	UDP
	ICMP	QUIC IETF

3. Which filter would you use in Wireshark to display only packets related to ICMP communication?

The filter I would use in Wireshark, to display only packets related to ICMP communication, would be: icmp.

4.

- a. What is the MAC address of the destination device and the MAC address of the source device?

The MAC address of the destination device is 66:77:88:99:aa:bb. And the MAC address of the source device is 00:11:22:33:44:55.

- b. What is the assigned IP address of your system?

The assigned IP address of my system is 10.0.2.15.

- c. What is the assigned IP address of the destination host?

The assigned IP address of my system is 1.1.1.1.

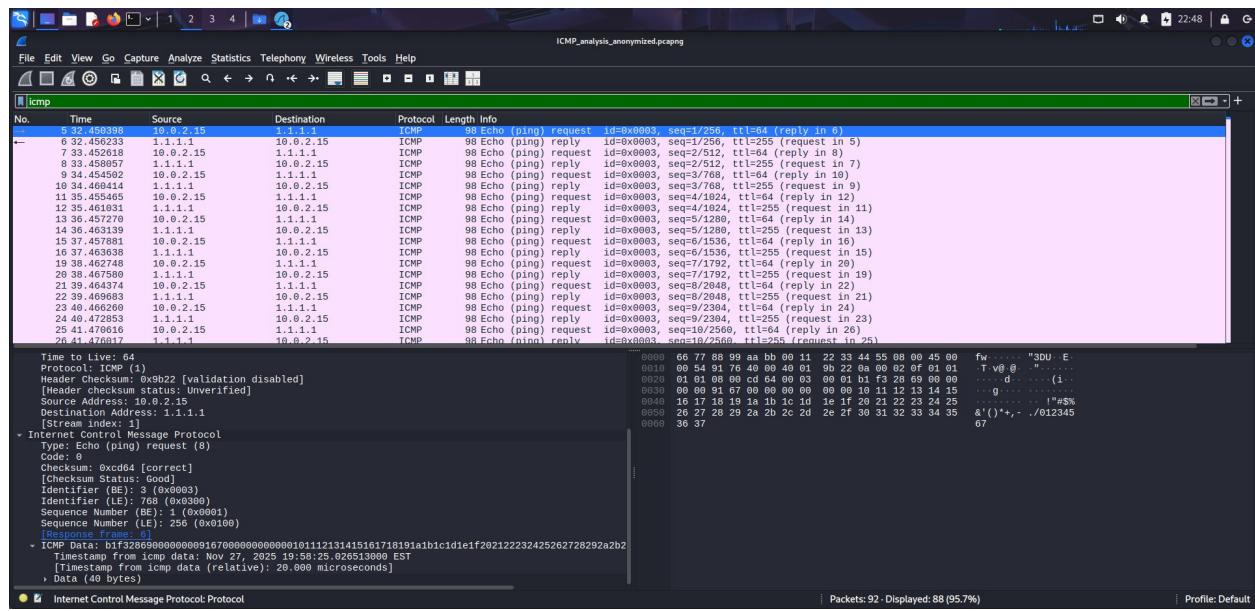

- d. What is the assigned time-to-live for the request packets?

The assigned time-to-live for the packet is 64.

- e. What is the payload size of the request packets?

The payload size of the packet is 40 bytes.

5. A. Specify the destination IP address from the reply packet.

The destination IP address is 10.0.4.15.

B. Specify the source IP address from the reply packet.

The source IP address is 1.1.1.1.

